STEVEN J. VIGIL

USCF Certified Coach and Trainer

Steven Vigil has had a strong interest in chess since childhood. Chess was a favorite pastime in his Cuban-American family where the games of the immortal Jose R. Capablanca were studied and admired. Steven has a B.A. from the University of Florida where he was a member of the U.F. chess club and competed in tournaments. He has devoted the past seven years to teaching chess at the beginner and intermediate levels as well as promoting, organizing and running chess tournaments, school programs and private lessons. He is a USCF certified chess coach and USCF local Tournament Director. Steven has trained and continues to train countless young aspiring chess players. He currently teaches after-school chess programs at six different Central Florida schools. Steven continues to teach chess strategy, tactics and history to aspiring players and is available for private lessons by appointment. To schedule your lesson call Steven at 321-297-7087 or email: chessteacher1977@yahoo.com.
